Dear Parents,

I hope you are enjoying your time off this summer! It's hard to imagine that the school year will be starting soon.

Our floors have been redone and are looking terrific for the new school year. We have several new students registered and look forward to welcoming them to the Cypress family.

Chevon Bell, our Pre-K teacher has been working in the office on M, W, & F from 1-2 pm. If you have questions please try to catch her during those hours or email her at secretary@cypressda.com.

Our school bus/van is full for this year. We are excited to have Marco Ramirez as our new bus driver – you may remember him as our soccer coach for last year and Marc Ramirez's dad. We are working on obtaining another vehicle and will need a second driver. If you know someone that would be interested have them call 425-775-3578 & leave a message or email us at secretary@cypressda.com.

I look forward to seeing you soon,

Dea Bienhoff

We are excited to have Jeremy Morado as our new music teacher.

He is currently working on his dissertation as a doctoral candidate in the Choral Conducting Program at the University of Washington (UW). Prior to moving to Seattle, he taught music full time for a total of seven years at the primary and secondary levels at Bakersfield Academy, Thunderbird Academy and Loma Linda Academy. Additionally, Jeremy has conducted the University Singers and Men's Glee at UW, produced his own album entitled "Watch Ye Saints", sang as a bass section leader in adult church/community choirs including Seattle Pro Musica, travels as a singing evangelist, loves singing in contemporary a cappella groups, and enjoys composing and arranging. He holds a Master of Music Degree in Choral Conducting at California State University, Northridge and a Bachelor of Music Education at La Sierra University, Riverside, California. Additionally, he currently teaches online classes at Bellevue College in Seattle, conducts choirs at the Everett Indonesian-American SDA Church, Southminister Presbyterian Church in Des Moines, WA, is the assistant director for the Celebration Ensemble in Bellevue, WA, and will also be teaching at the Forest Park Seventh-day Adventist Christian School.
